

SCHEDULE

Description of Works or Proposals and any conditions attached to the faculty

Reordering in accordance with the proposals of Acanthus Clews including :- Creation of parish rooms, including WC and servery with a gallery at the west end, relocation of font, removal of pews from the east end of the north and south aisles, provision of underfloor heating in the south aisle, nave and north aisle, construction of a timber framed nave platform, minor modifications to the chapel, removal of frontals to choir stalls and their incorporation in the gallery balustrade, installation of a screen in the west archway of the organ chamber to provide storage, installation of a new gas boiler and heating system and new lighting, creation of a level area outside the west door and alterations to the path. (Incorporating revisions agreed with the Victorian Society as shown in the revised plans No. 15L and O5D)

The following conditions were attached to the Faculty:

- 1. That the Diocesan Archaeological Adviser is consulted about the proposed work and that the advice of an archaeologist is obtained on the level of observation and recording appropriate, and the likely cost, and that such arrangements are carried out

- 2. That a photographic record is made of the parts of the church affected by the work before the work begins and copies deposited with the DAC and the County Archives

The period of time in which the work authorised by this Faculty may be completed is extended to 22 January 2012

.....
Registrar